Applicable legal and regulatory framework

This Policy shall be read with the following principal requirements, each as amended, replaced, saved or brought into force from time to time:

- SEBI Listing Regulations, regulation 9
- Companies Act, 2013, including sections 94, 120 and 128, and applicable rules
- Information Technology Act, 2000 and applicable electronic-record requirements
- SEBI PIT Regulations, tax, labour, environmental and other subject-specific retention rules

STATUTORY OVERRIDE

If this Policy is inconsistent with a mandatory law, regulation, rule, circular, stock-exchange direction or judicial order, the mandatory requirement prevails. A more beneficial statutory employment benefit also prevails.

Minimum preservation classifications

- Permanent: incorporation and constitutional records, statutory registers/minutes where law requires permanence, material title/ownership records and other category-A documents identified under regulation 9.
- At least eight years after completion of the relevant transaction: category-B documents under regulation 9, subject to any longer subject-specific period.
- PIT SDD: at least eight years after completion of the relevant transaction and longer for an investigation or enforcement proceeding.
- No scheduled destruction may occur while a legal hold, audit, inquiry, claim, investigation or regulatory request is pending or reasonably anticipated.

Policy provisions

Preamble

This Policy on Preservation, Retention and Destruction of Documents and Records (“Policy”) has been framed pursuant to:

- Regulation 9 of the SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 (“SEBI LODR”);

- Regulation 30(8) of SEBI LODR relating to archival of disclosures hosted on the Company's website;
- Applicable provisions of the Companies Act, 2013 and rules made thereunder;
- Information Technology Act, 2000 and applicable rules relating to electronic records; and
- Other applicable laws, regulations and statutory requirements governing preservation of records.
- This Policy establishes a framework for the systematic management, retention, preservation, retrieval, archival and destruction of records generated or received by BKM Industries Limited ("Company").

Objectives

The objectives of this Policy are to:

- Ensure compliance with statutory and regulatory requirements relating to record retention;
- Preserve records necessary for the effective functioning of the Company;
- Protect the legal, financial, operational and historical interests of the Company;
- Establish uniform standards for retention and disposal of records;
- Ensure proper preservation of records in physical and electronic form;
- Facilitate efficient retrieval of records whenever required;
- Minimize storage costs and risks associated with retaining unnecessary records;
- Establish procedures for suspension of destruction during investigations, audits or litigation.

Applicability

This Policy shall apply to:

- Directors
- Key Managerial Personnel;
- Employees;
- Consultants and advisors handling Company records;
- All departments, locations and business units of the Company.

The Policy applies to records maintained in:

- Physical form;
- Electronic form;
- Email communications;
- Cloud-based repositories;
- Digital databases;
- Audio, video and scanned records.

Definitions

"Document" or "Record" means any information created, received, maintained or stored by the Company in physical or electronic form, including books, papers, registers, files, contracts, agreements, minutes, notices, circulars, emails, databases, audio recordings, video recordings, photographs, scanned copies, cloud-based records and any other information maintained in the ordinary course of business.

"Electronic Record" shall have the meaning assigned under the Information Technology Act, 2000.

"Legal Hold" means suspension of normal destruction procedures due to actual, pending or reasonably anticipated litigation, investigation, inquiry, inspection or audit.

Guiding Principles

The Company shall:

- Preserve records required under applicable laws for the prescribed period.
- Preserve records permanently where required by law or where such records have continuing business, legal or historical value.
- Maintain records in a manner ensuring confidentiality, integrity, availability and retrievability.
- Permit destruction only after expiry of applicable retention periods and subject to this Policy.

Classification Of Records

Records shall be classified into:

Category A – Permanent Records

Records that shall be preserved permanently unless otherwise permitted by law.

Category B – Long-Term Retention Records

Records required to be preserved for a specified statutory or business period.

Category C – Temporary Records

Records having limited operational usefulness and which may be destroyed after expiry of the retention period.

Responsibilities

Board of Directors

The Board shall approve and periodically review this Policy.

- Managing Director / Chief Executive Officer

Overall oversight of implementation of this Policy.

Company Secretary

The Company Secretary shall:

- Administer and monitor compliance with this Policy;
- Maintain the Archival Policy requirements under SEBI LODR;
- Coordinate implementation across departments;
- Initiate legal hold procedures where required.
- Department Heads

Each Department Head shall:

- Ensure preservation of records under their custody;
- Maintain departmental retention schedules;
- Authorize destruction after expiry of retention periods;
- Ensure records remain accessible and secure.
- Information Technology Department

The IT Department shall:

- Maintain electronic records and backups;
- Ensure cybersecurity and access controls;
- Preserve archived records;
- Facilitate recovery of records in emergencies.

Preservation Of Records

Records may be maintained in:

- Original physical form;
- Electronic form;
- Digitized/scanned form where legally permissible.

The Company may digitize physical records to improve accessibility and storage efficiency, provided authenticity and integrity are maintained.

Electronic Records Management

The Company shall implement reasonable controls for:

- Access management;
- Backup and recovery;
- Version control;
- Cybersecurity protection;
- Disaster recovery;
- Data integrity verification.

Electronic records shall be treated at par with physical records for retention purposes.

- Data Protection and Confidentiality

The Company shall take reasonable measures to ensure that records containing confidential, proprietary, personal or sensitive information are protected against unauthorized access, alteration, disclosure, loss or destruction.

Preservation and disposal of records containing personal data shall be undertaken in accordance with applicable data protection laws and internal information security policies.

Legal Hold

Notwithstanding any retention schedule:

No record shall be destroyed where:

- Litigation is pending or reasonably anticipated;
- Regulatory proceedings are pending;
- Government investigations are underway;
- Statutory audits require preservation;
- Legal counsel directs preservation.

Upon issuance of a Legal Hold Notice, all destruction activities relating to affected records shall immediately cease until written release of the hold.

The Legal Hold Notice may be issued by the Managing Director, Chief Executive Officer, Company Secretary, Head-Legal or any person authorised by the Board.

Destruction Of Records

Records may be destroyed after expiry of the applicable retention period, provided:

- No legal hold applies;
- No statutory requirement mandates further retention;
- Destruction shall be carried out only after approval of the relevant Department Head and maintenance of appropriate records evidencing such destruction.

Destruction shall be undertaken in a secure manner through shredding, secure destruction, permanent electronic deletion or any other method ensuring complete and irreversible destruction of records.

A Record Disposal Register shall be maintained containing:

- Description of record;
- Department;
- Retention period;
- Date of destruction;
- Mode of destruction;
- Authorizing officer.

Archival Of Website Disclosures

Pursuant to Regulation 30(8) of SEBI LODR:

All disclosures made to stock exchanges and hosted on the Company's website shall remain available on the website for a minimum period of five years.

After completion of five years, such disclosures shall be archived and preserved in retrievable electronic form for such period as may be determined by the Company, subject to a minimum period required under applicable laws and regulations.

Disaster Recovery And Business Continuity

Critical records necessary for continuity of business operations shall be:

- Backed up periodically;
- Stored securely;
- Protected against fire, flood, cyber incidents and other disasters;
- Recoverable through tested disaster recovery procedures.

Exceptions

Where any applicable law prescribes a longer retention period than this Policy, the statutory requirement shall prevail.

Where no specific retention period is prescribed, the relevant Department Head may determine an appropriate retention period considering legal, operational and business requirements.

Conflict With Applicable Law

In the event of any inconsistency between this Policy and any applicable law, regulation, circular, notification or judicial order, the provisions of such applicable law shall prevail. The Policy shall be deemed modified to the extent necessary to comply with such requirements.

Authority For Interpretation

The Company Secretary shall be responsible for interpreting and administering this Policy. Any question regarding application of this Policy shall be referred to the Company Secretary, whose interpretation shall be subject to review by the Managing Director and, where necessary, the Board of Directors.

Amendment

The Board of Directors reserves the right to amend, modify, suspend or withdraw this Policy at any time, in whole or in part, subject to compliance with applicable laws and regulations.

Policy Review

This Policy shall be reviewed periodically and may be amended by the Board of Directors to ensure continued compliance with applicable laws and best governance practices.
